We Dedicate This Annual to our American Heritage

We are Americans. We live in the greatest nation in the world today. We have the highest standard of living of any people on the face of this earth. We can say, print, worship, work and live as we like. We have an educational system that strives to give all an equal chance for success in life.

Our nation is made up of a unique people, a people whose desire for freedom and self-betterment brought them across a cold and monstrous Atlantic. A people whose spirit and faith brought them through plagues, famines, blizzards, and wars.

It is sad that we Americans today take our ancestry so lightly. History to us is usually just a step for gaining credits toward graduation instead of the tear-stained faces and gnarled hands of men and women settling a new and untamed land.

With God's help and their strong determination, our ancestors won their freedom, only to realize that complete freedom is impossible. There must be something and someone to guide.

Then the Constitution was born, and the United States of America came into being.

The young nation survived crisis, revolution and hardship. Pioneers boldly crossed endless miles of prairies, deserts, mountains and rivers, until the nation could slumber with the Pacific as its pillow and the Atlantic as its footboard.

Soon the eastern industries were joined with the western gold mines and cattle empires by the "iron horse". Then cars puffed and rattled across crude, rough roads.

America soon realized that oceans are not absolute barriers between us and Europe, and that freedom is not strictly an American commodity. Not long after the guns of the Civil War were silent, our nation had to fight for freedom's sake on foreign soil. After a short era of wild celebrating, depression darkened the land, but America was not yet ready for a pine box, and recovered with enough vigor to go out and produce planes, cars, new products, new medicines, and new ideas such as no one had ever dreamed would be possible.

America has always met one crisis only to find another awaiting. We must now meet more foes - Communism, care of our fellow man, civil strife. Americans of tomorrow must face these challenges just as our ancestors faced and solved so many problems.

We dedicate this 1965 Annual to those immortals who built this free and majestic land. But more than that, we dedicate this annual to America's heritage of the future - to those who will be willing to live lives dedicated to keeping our land "one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all".

Judy Wampler

Administration

"Ours is the only country deliberately founded on a good idea."

John Gunther

Board of Education

L to R: Mr. Roy Sollenberger - President, Mr. Clyde Ullery, and Mr. Frank Wampler.

Just as a nation could not survive without a president, a school can not be run without a superintendent. It's his responsibility to make ends meet financially and take care of the school's many day to day problems.

Thanks to superintendents in every school across our land, America has the best educational system in the world.

Mr. Carl B. Adkins

SUPERINTENDENT

Mrs. Mary Sellman

SECRETARY

MR. JAMES MILLER
High School Principal

Just as a nation needs a leader so does a school. A more able leader than our principal is hard to find. His job is not an easy one and as the school year comes to a close, we look back and admire Mr. Miller for a job well done.

MR. MARLIN YOST
Curriculum Coordinator

MISS PHYLLIS TURNER
Guidance Counsellor

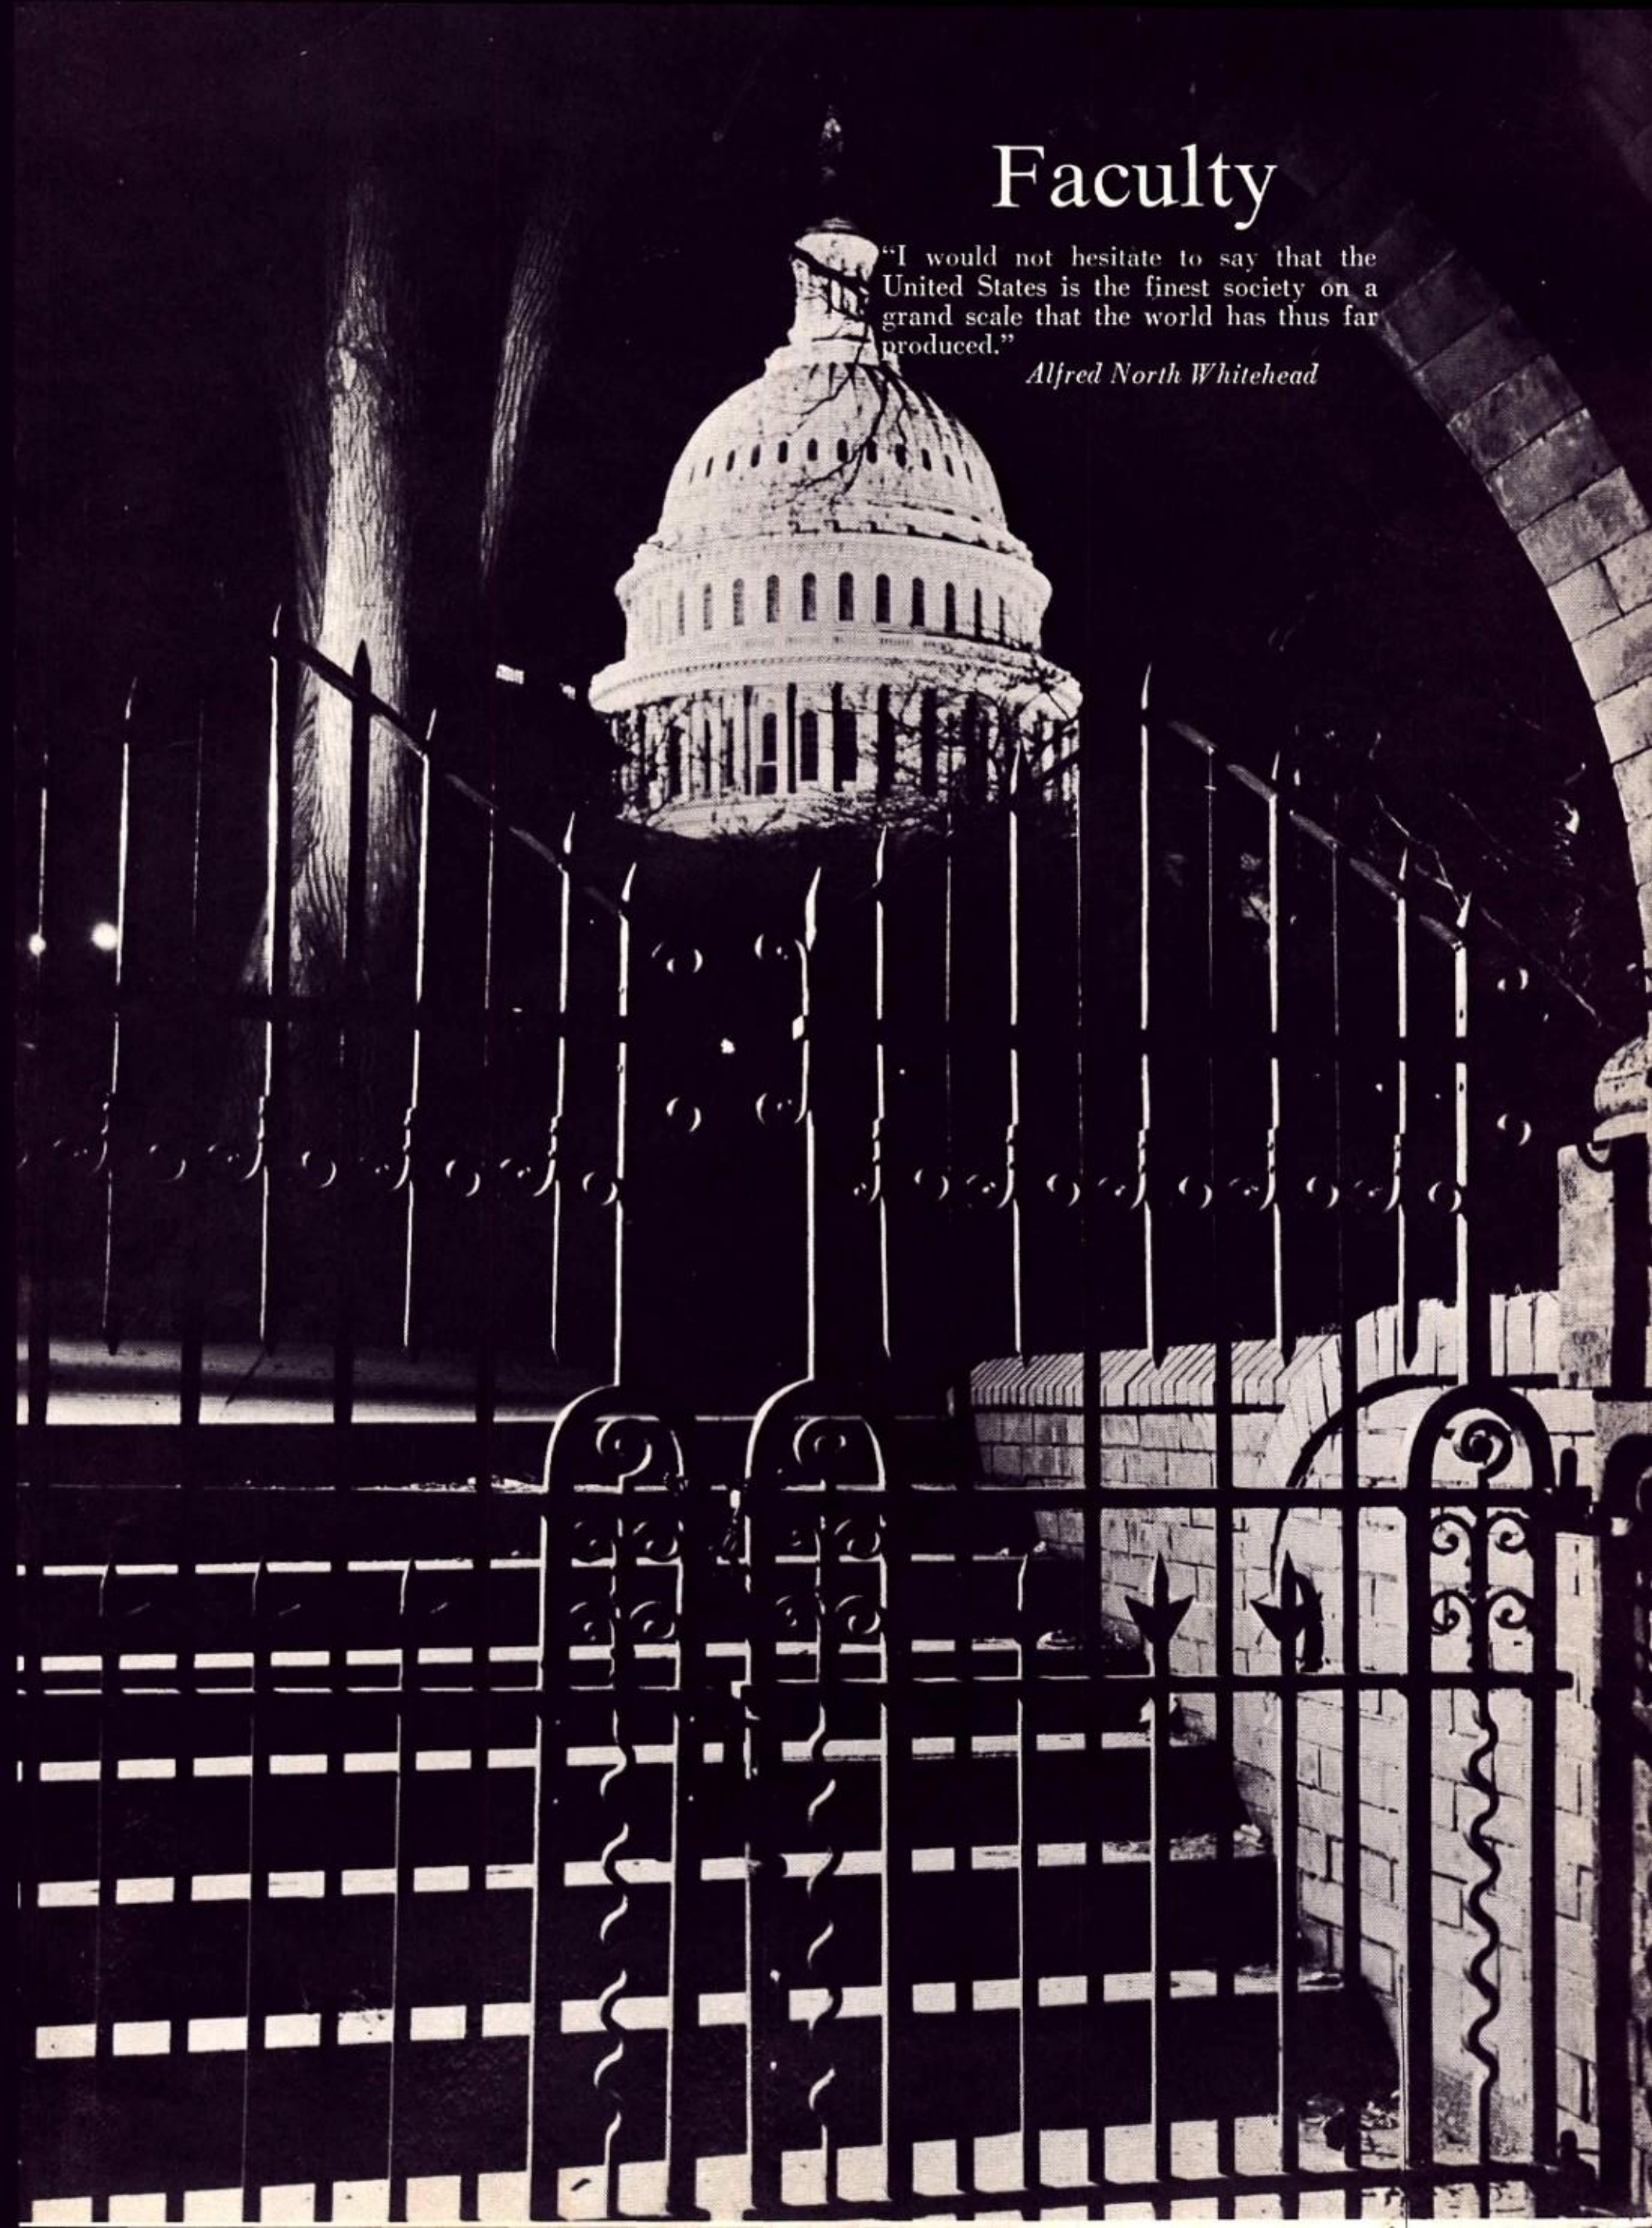

MRS. MARILYN KERSHNER
High School Secretary

Faculty

"I would not hesitate to say that the United States is the finest society on a grand scale that the world has thus far produced."

Alfred North Whitehead

Except when taking social studies in school, we seldom pause to remember the men and events that have made America the greatest nation in the world today. Social studies also help us to appreciate the men and events of the present which are keeping America the leader of the Free World.

The Social Studies Faculty

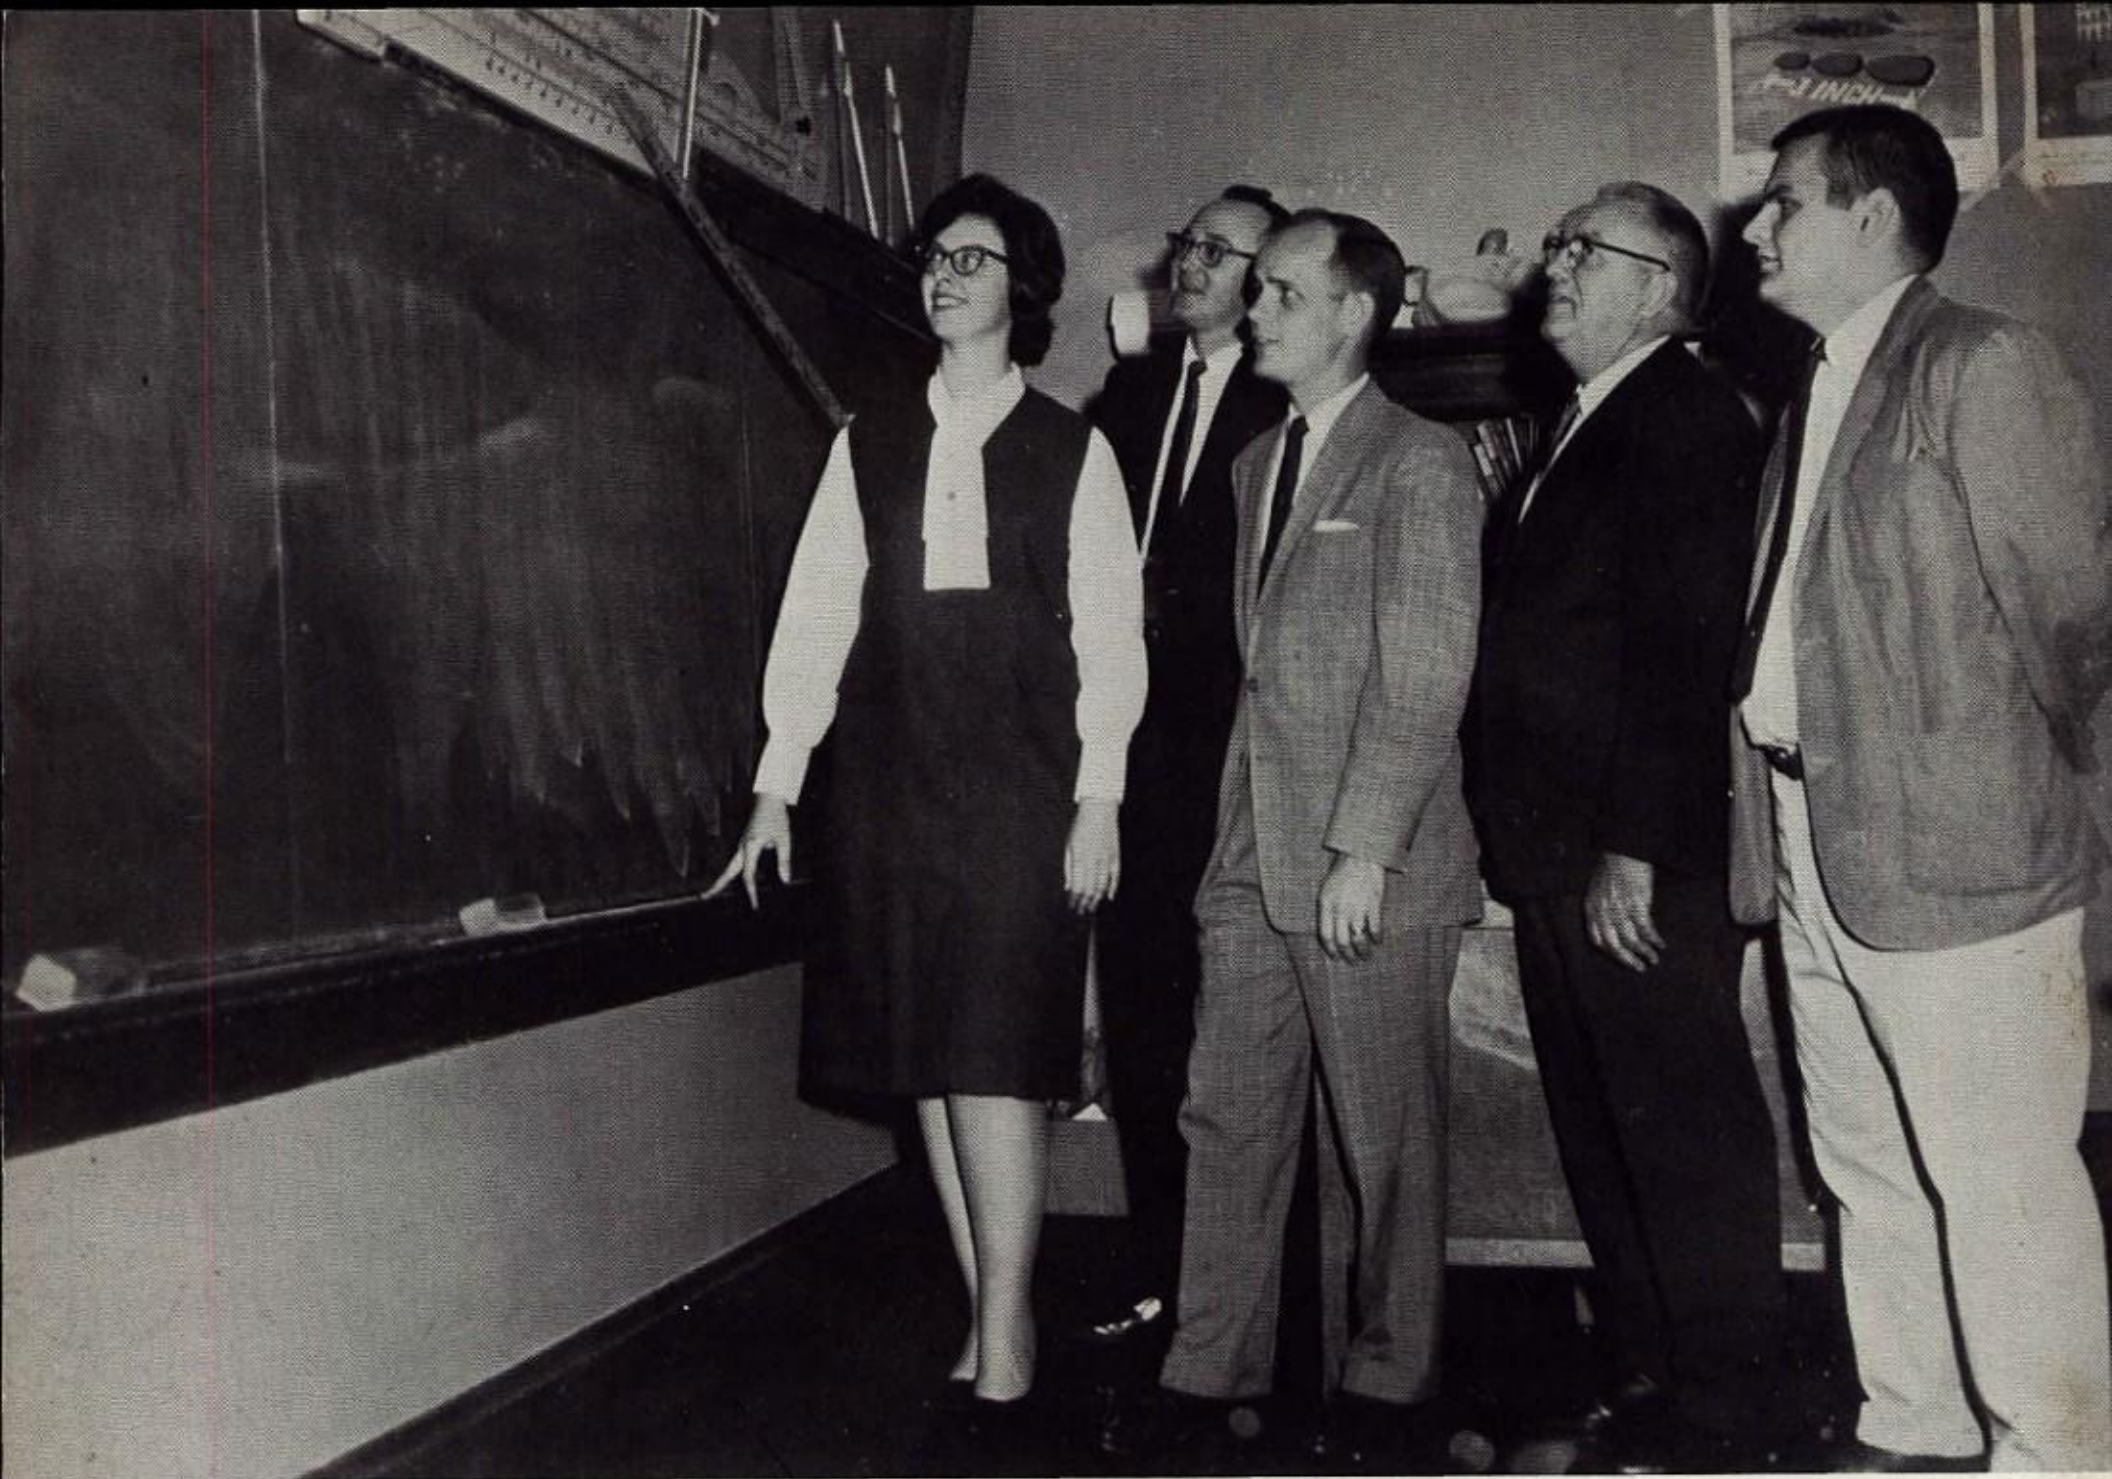

LEFT to RIGHT: Edsel Brooks, Perry Cooksey, Dayne Shaw, Francis Yost

From the beginning of time, man has wondered why. Americans freely explored and probed for the why of life to daily miracles, paving a destiny of greatness for themselves and their country.

Today science is still continually transforming our world, bettering and elongating life.

The Science Faculty

From the atom to the universe math has proved to be the key unlocking new and fascinating secrets.

Great mathematicians like Einstein have added much to America's greatness. Today mathematicians are among the most demanded professions.

The Mathematics Faculty

SEATED L to R: Ruthe Noffsinger, Elizabeth Sturgeon, John Ellis
STANDING L to R: Ruby Hughes, Dora Densmore

Man's gift of intelligence would be useless without the additional gift of language with which to share his ideas. The idea of democracy has been passed down through history by means of the written and spoken word, finally forming the basis of our own United States.

The Language Arts Faculty

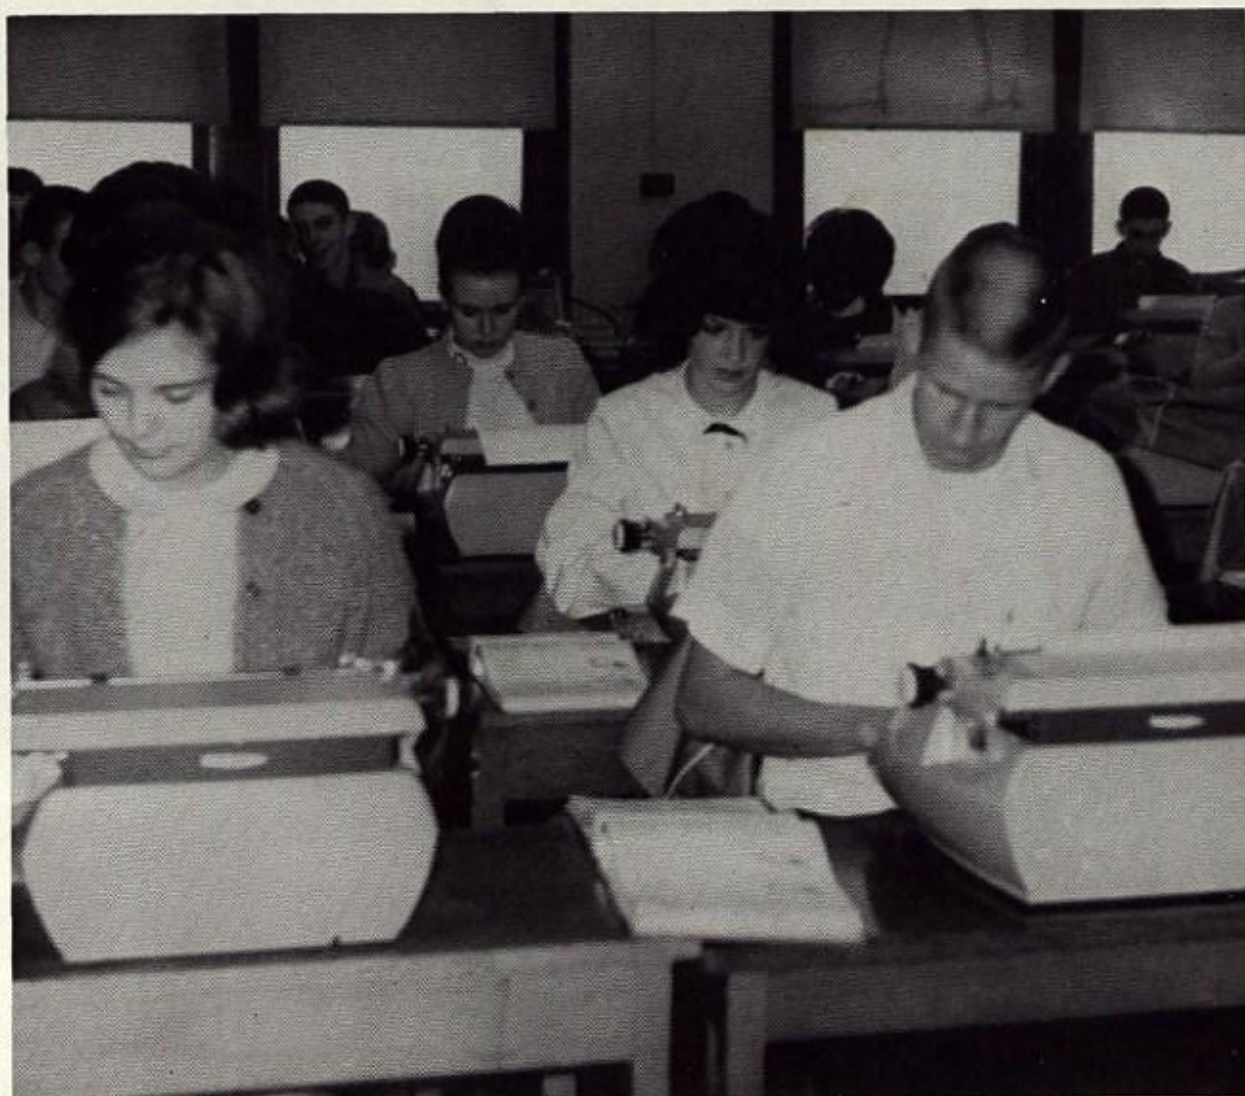

LEFT to RIGHT: Carolou Skeans, Nettye Clark, Charolette Calihan, Martha Hair, Billy Allen

America is a land of ideas and actions and education. America would not be complete if the hands weren't trained. There will never be a replacement for manual jobs, from cooks to mechanics, in our land, for there must always be someone to make ideas become realities.

The Commercial Home Economics Shop Faculty

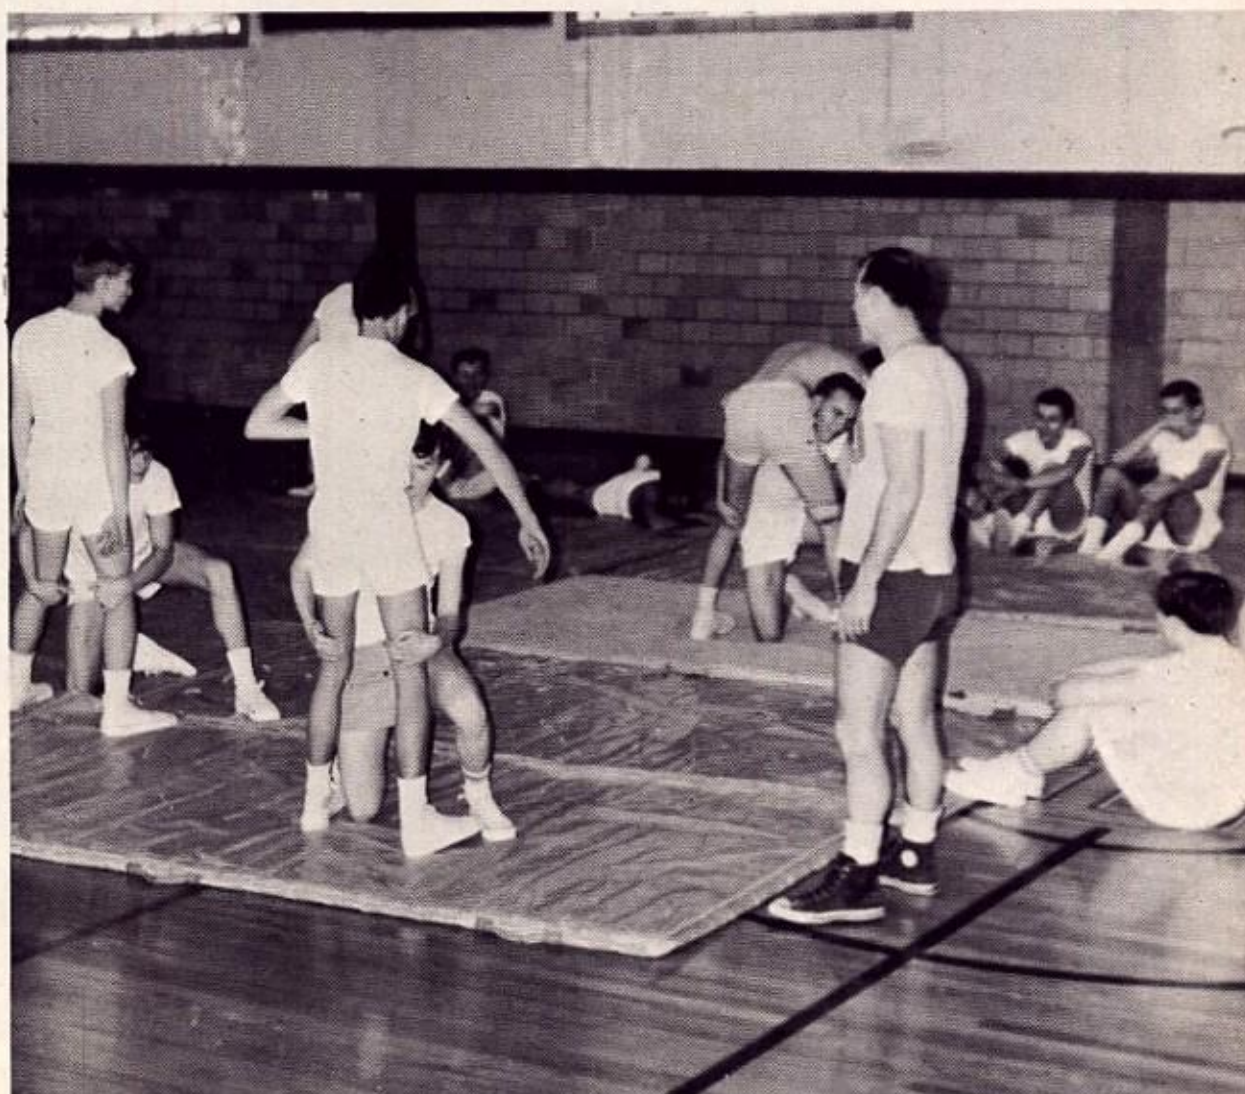

L to R: David Keener, Gene Thrailkill, Clyda Roher, Ray Amigo

The developing of the mind never completes an education. The body also must be developed and taught to co-ordinate with the brain. Students, too, need to learn how to co-operate for a common goal. These are the lessons learned through music and physical education.

Special Education

The Special Education Classes in schools throughout our country have opened up to many students the doors to a successful future.

These classes put into action Americans' belief that every citizen, has the responsibility for contributing to the best of his ability.

Custodians

There are many famous people who make up our American heritage, but, many times, those who perform the daily mundane tasks are the ones who make it the richest. Our cooks, bus drivers, and custodians are examples of people who do the necessary jobs that aid our probe into learning.

Juniors

"There may be men who can live without political rights and without opportunity of free individual development, but I think this is intolerable for most Americans."

Albert Einstein

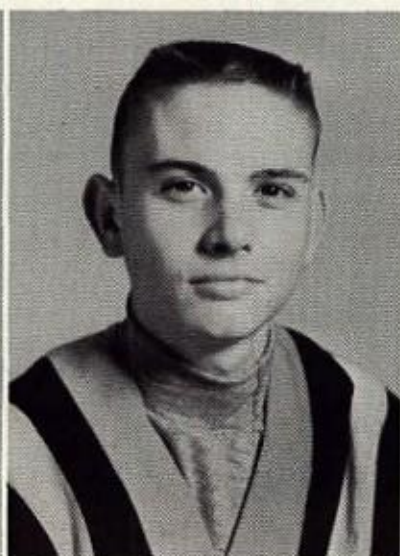

Junior Class Officers

The Juniors are easily singled out by the shiny ring: on a hand-out for money. Life for them is not all financial worry, however, for they, too, will have an award for their labors. It's a very good bet that all Juniors have May 8 marked "Prom" on their calendars.

National Honor Society

FIRST ROW L to R: Lorena Deisher, Marydell Smith, Sue Erbaugh, Linda Michael, Judy Wampler

SECOND ROW: Mrs. Vines, Ruth McRoberts, Claudia Borders, Karen Kiser, Jayne White, Frances Houston

THIRD ROW: Charles Adams, Bob Vogel, Kenton Gearhart, Richard Seim, Bill Wharton, Mike Keener, Montie Humphries

NOT PRESENT: Patsy Neal

National Honor Society encourages character, scholarship, leadership, and citizenship - these qualities are possessed by men who made and do make America great.

Scholarship Team

THIRD ROW: Dennis Holloran, David Walker, Jim Dillon, Ronnie Mustard, Jim Williams, John Edwards, David Erbaugh, Montie Humphries, Bob Vogel

Competition has always been part of the American spirit. Scholastic competition, such as the scholarship tests, results in greater achievements in learning just as competition in the business world bring about better products.

Student Council

SECOND ROW: Janet Metzger, Kenny Boehmer, Kenny Hess, Jim Ransomer, Denise Erbaugh, Melva Heck, Leonard Kidd, Jim Dillon

THIRD ROW: Connie Askins, Forrest Denny, Jeff Eck, Phil Summers, David Stahr, Bill Vogel, Rick Smith

Only in a land of democracy can students have a voice in school procedures. The Student Council provides this voice, closing the gap between administration and students.

Journalism

SITTING: Connie McGoon, Linda Dandrea, Mary Jo Lenk, Linda Engle, Judy Wampler, Genie Smith

Journalism has played a huge role in America, from the pamphlet "Common Sense" to the book "Conscience of the Conservative". Though yet amateurs, the Journalism class has done an excellent job of reporting the school news. Perhaps some of them will continue their journalism careers and play a part in the America yet to come.

In Tribute

The annual staff pauses to give a reverent tribute to a former annual staff member.

It is always sad when an outstanding life is ended when it has barely begun, but so it was with Denny Ellison.

We all grieve with his parents the loss of such a promising young man and fellow American. Let us all be inspired by his courage and virtues, and try to live the kind of life we believe he would have lived.

HERE RESTS IN
AN AMERICAN
SOLDIER
KNOWN BUT TO GOD

Elementary

"The winning of freedom is not to be compared to the winning of a game — with the victory recorded forever in history. Freedom has its life in the hearts, the actions, the spirit of men and so it must be daily earned and refreshed . . ."

Dwight D. Eisenhower

Elementary School Cooks

L to R: Hazel Summers - Cashier, Charlotte Spitler - Head Cook, Mabel Bowser, Emma Comer, Lila Knight, Marie Shephard, Daisy Allread, Lois Marshall

The Elementary principal has a most important and challenging job in keeping discipline among energetic youngsters while making sure that they get the best education possible.

MRS. GENEVA SEIM

We salute Mrs. Seim, the seldom honored school nurse. Always on hand when an emergency strikes, she knows the cures for ailments from skinned knees to headaches caused by upcoming tests. She's not only an efficient nurse, but also a wonderful, friendly woman who has a way of soothing feelings and drying tears.
